

The first of these is the fact that the $\text{H}^+$  concentration in the $\text{H}^+$  ionosphere is not constant, but varies with the frequency of the incident radiation.

Larry R.
Fairbanks
375 Mix Ave.
Columbus
OH 43228

Samuel W.
DeWorth
845 Dunvegan Court
Pickerington
OH
43147

David C.
Barber
19140 Baythorn Way
Brookfield
WI
53045

08698
(614) 792-5555
(614) 792-5536
jstandley@standleyandgilcrest.com

STRAIGHT FACE VINYL SIDING
03
No Utility
CPS 1540-203B

Continuation of 29/133077
11-20-2000